

Filming and Photography at the Old Treasury Building

OLD TREASURY BUILDING

The Old Treasury Building is a film-friendly location while balancing the requirements of public access to the museum and the requirements of our tenants.

The information in this brochure relates to commercial filming and still photography, including television, feature films, advertising and television commercials, documentaries, and music videos.

All commercial filming activities are required to apply for a permit for the use of a public space. This ensures the activity is in accordance with the regulations of this building.

FILM PERMITS

We will respond to your application within five business days of receiving it. Please note that if we need to make complex arrangements for your filming activity it may take us more than five days to issue a permit. Incomplete forms will be returned without action.

Alternative pricing arrangements may be made for student projects and not-for-profit entities. Any waiver of fees will be at the discretion of management. If you believe your project qualifies, please contact our Filming Coordinator.

To apply for a permit, please complete the application form and send it to film@otb.org.au or post to 20 Spring Street, East Melbourne VIC 3002.

Applications will incur a non-refundable fee of AUD \$55. All prices include GST.

LOCATIONS

The Old Treasury Building is widely regarded as one of the finest nineteenth-century buildings in Melbourne. The Building hosts the original gold vaults where gold bullion was stored during the Gold Rush era, as well as offices and corridors with historic nineteenth-century fittings. There are several spaces available for filming to fulfil a variety of demands.

OLD TREASURY BUILDING

THE FRONT STEPS

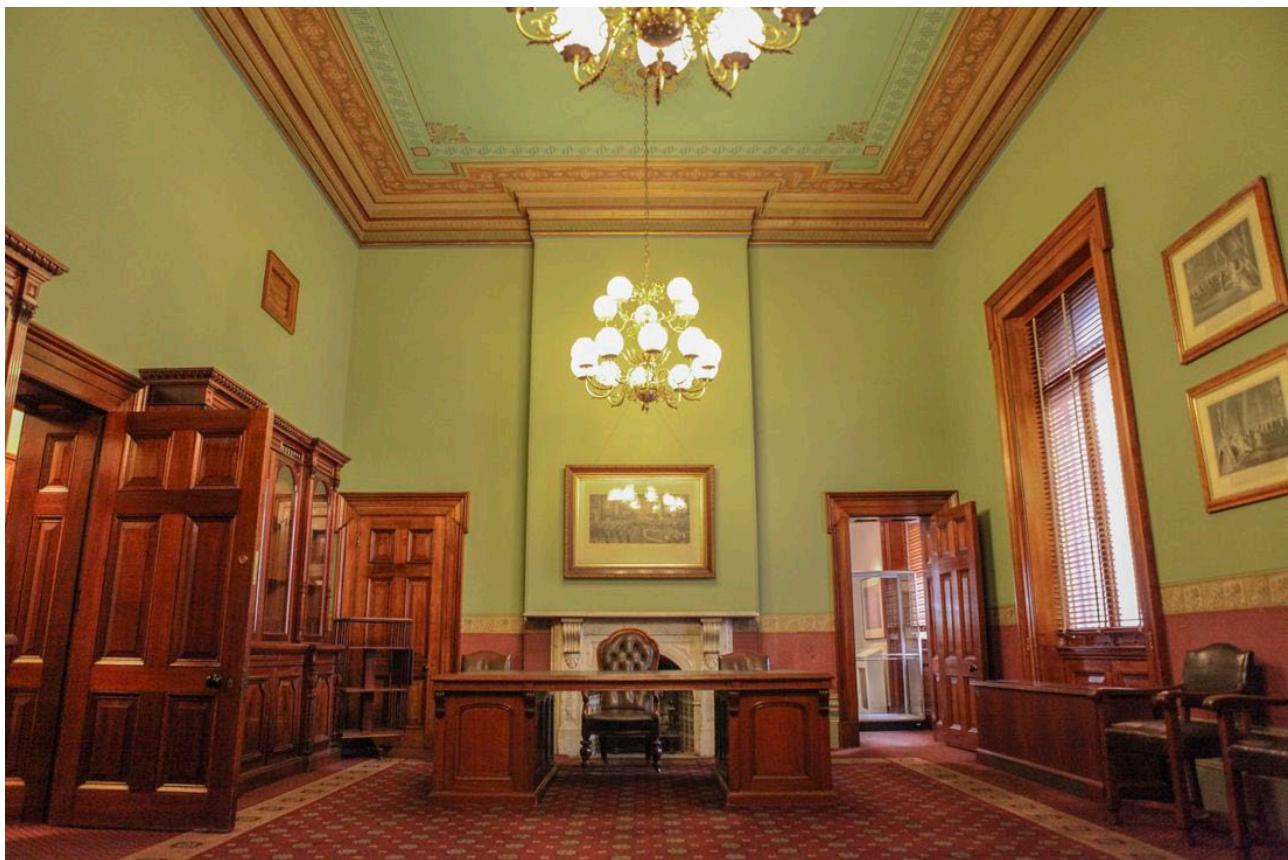

The original front steps of the Old Treasury Building date to the 1860s and boast a large forecourt and restored cast iron lamps from the 1870s.

OLD TREASURY BUILDING

THE GOLD VAULTS

The basement of the building consists of the original ten gold vaults, built in the late 1850s to house gold bullion transported from the Victorian goldfields. To protect the bullion, the gold vaults were constructed from thick sandstone and bluestone, and the arched roof is one metre thick for added security.
